Queen Victoria® - Deployment Overview

The North Cape, Iceland, and the Atlantic Isles (including a 15-night Christmas and New Year voyage) are among the destinations Queen Victoria® will visit in 2023, with The Baltics, Iberia and the British Isles also highlight. Along with the natural phenomenon of the Midnight sun, she'll offer overnight calls to St Petersburg, Lisbon and Reykjavik, and relaxed days ashore on the picturesque islands of Cephalonia, Santorini and Sardinia. Voyages to the Canary Islands, Portugal and Northern Spain are further complemented by scenic cruising in Norway's fjords, where early morning departures in Tromso and Narvik offer the possibility of seeing the night sky come alive with the neon glow of the Northern Lights.

CUNARD® COMPLETE AIR

Make it a truly relaxing vacation by letting Cunard handle all the details.

The Cunard® CompleteAir program offers guests and their travel advisors an experience similar to other automated air booking websites, but with flights tailored specifically to their cruise. All available flights can be reviewed in real time, and the desired departure time, carrier, number of stops, and class of service will be confirmed upon booking. We cannot guarantee that seat selection will be available, as that is controlled by the airlines. The Cunard® CompleteAir program features no customization fees. Customized flight itineraries are available to all guests.

All guests who book air travel through Cunard will be automatically enrolled in the Cunard Late Arrival Protection program (not applicable for Transatlantic Crossings). If guests miss or will miss their original port of embarkation due to airline delay or an airline service disruption, such as flight cancellation or flight re-routes, Cunard will do what we can to work with the airlines to find a reasonable alternative to provide flights to the next appropriate port at no additional air cost to the guest.

If for any reason your cruise arrives late into port or your Cunard transfer is delayed to the airport and you miss your return flight, Cunard will work with the airline to rebook your flights to get you home.

Cunard® CompleteAir is now better than ever with new, lower prices. Cunard's improved program offers all the benefits of a flexible ticket at the price of a restricted ticket, at deeper discounts compared to booking airfare online or directly with the airlines.

Queen Mary 2®

New England & Canada

A 7-night Independence Day voyage calling at Boston, and a three day stay in Quebec are highlights of Queen Mary 2's New England and Canada itineraries in 2023. Retrace the history of the American Revolution on Boston's famous Freedom Trail, indulge with a creamy bowl of traditional clam chowder, or savor a frosty beer at Cheers. In Canada, the UNESCO World Heritage city of Old Quebec will whisk you back through time and into the pages of a fairytale. Drink in 400 years of history, and architecture with a distinctly European feel, as you wander the cobbled streets of Petit-Champlain, the grassy knolls of Parliament Hill, and the galleries of the city's Old Port, in the birthplace of French North America.

Norwegian Fjords

Combining breath-taking scenes of forested mountains, foaming waterfalls and sapphire blue lakes, with exploration ashore in enchanting Nordic towns, a Norwegian Fjords cruise offers the perfect balance of nature, discovery and adventure. Admire the historic wharf houses in Stavanger Harbour or the 18th century cottages of its white-washed old town. Ignite your palate with a local fish dish in Bergen, a UNESCO City of Gastronomy, or admire the art collections of its impressive KODE museum. After exploring Alesund's art nouveau buildings at ground level, make the ascent up Mount Aksla from the City Park for spectacular panoramic views. Similarly astounding scenes can be enjoyed from the Stegastein viewpoint in Flaam, 2,132 feet above the Aurlandsfjord, while a ride on the town's famous railway offers unparalleled close-ups of the Norwegian countryside that are not to be missed.

Caribbean

With year-round hot weather, an abundance of world heritage sites and some of the finest white sand beaches on earth, a cruise to the Caribbean is the perfect antidote to city life. Explore the colorful wares and exotic fruits of Roseau's Old Market in Dominica, sip rum from the world's oldest breweries in Barbados or take an aerial team ride through rainforest treetops in St Lucia. Basseterre, one the oldest towns in Eastern Caribbean, brings Italian and Victorian-influenced architecture, together with the famously gentle and transparent waters of South Friar's Bay. The subterranean chambers of Harrison's Cave and underwater submarine tours await in Barbados, while Dominica's UNESCO-listed Mornes Trois Pitons National Park is the gateway to bubbling mud pools, hot springs and the island's famous boiling lake.

Western Mediterranean

Colorful palaces, artistic masterpieces and seas that sparkle under endless blue skies are just a handful of the reasons to cruise the Western Mediterranean. As well as its culinary legacy – the Mediterranean diet is hailed as one of the healthiest in the world – the region is home to countless UNESCO treasures, from the pastel hued villas of Sintra, just outside of Lisbon, to the revolutionary architecture of Antoni Gaudi, threaded throughout the streets of Barcelona. Calls to Rome from Civitavecchia invite you to follow in the footsteps of gladiators in the Colosseum, admire works by Michelangelo in the Sistine Chapel, and cool off with a creamy gelato, while Cadiz unveils atmospheric old streets, bustling plazas and the UNESCO architecture of Seville.

Queen Elizabeth®

Alaska

One of the most intriguing, beautiful and unique destinations on earth, a voyage of Alaska is akin to embarking on an arctic exploration, offering wondrous scenes of iridescent glaciers lapped by icy waterways. Fresh from a season in Japan, Queen

Elizabeth® will embark on a series of 7, 10 and 11-night Alaska voyages from Vancouver, combining scenic cruising of Glacier Bay National Park, and/or Hubbard Glacier, with port calls ashore in some of the small communities that have made their home among the fjords, glaciers and greenery of The Last Frontier. Wander the colorful totem poles of Ketchikan, immerse yourself in Tlingit culture at Icy Strait Point, and experience the sweeping mountain views on Skagway's famous White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad.

USA, Caribbean, Mexico, and Central America.

Following a season in Alaska, Queen Elizabeth® will chart a course that takes in the Pacific Coast, Mexico, the Caribbean and Central America, treating guests to time ashore in enigmatic cities and sun-infused resorts. Sailing first from San Francisco, she'll make a stop in Los Angeles, home to the Hollywood Hills and star-studded Walk of Fame, before the golden beaches of Cabo San Lucas beckon on the coast of Mexico. From here she'll visit Puntarenas in Costa Rica, with its colorful markets and lively oceanfront promenade, before embarking on a full transit of the Panama Canal. After which the Dutch Caribbean island of Aruba, Fort Lauderdale (from Port Everglades), and Hamilton, capital of Bermuda, await discovery.

Mediterranean.

September 2023 sees Queen Elizabeth® relocate to Barcelona where she'll embark on a Mediterranean cruise season that couples sea days on board with port calls in Spain, France and Italy. Fall for the charms of Ibiza's fortified Old Town, Dalt Vila, where winding cobbled streets spill into scenic terraces, or the futuristic aesthetic of Valencia's architecturally astounding City of Arts and Sciences. In Italy, Civitavecchia is your steppingstone to Rome's myriad historical legacies, while Livorno (a port renowned for its seafood) delights with its checkerboard promenade and 16th century bastions. Pisa, with its infamous leaning tower, is also just a stone's throw away. Ajaccio, capital of Corsica, brings the ancestral home of Napoleon Bonaparte while taking a cable car to the limestone peaks of Mont Faron is a must in Toulon.

Japan.

Quiet and chaotic, traditional yet futuristic, Japan is a catalog of contradictions, ready to surprise and amaze you at every opportunity. As you navigate the neon-illuminated streets of its capital Tokyo (tours from Yokohama) you'll experience a city rich in culture, but deftly modern, where opulent shrines coexist with 21st century skyscrapers. Stroll the canals that have earned Otaru its moniker as 'the Venice of Japan' and sample a taste of sake at the city's renowned breweries. Admire one of Japan's best-preserved feudal castles, Kochi-Jo, on a port call to Kochi, and see the poignant structure of the Genbaku Dome at Hiroshima's UNESCO-listed Peace Memorial Park.

Queen Victoria®

The Baltics

From the majestic presence of Russia's former capital, St Petersburg, to the leafy boulevards and Dutch-style canals of Gothenburg in Sweden, a Baltics voyage offers chance to step ashore in some of the world's most culturally significant and atmospheric cities. In Estonia's capital Tallinn, you'll encounter a magically preserved old town at the heart of the city, filled with enchanting shops, historic buildings and excellent restaurants. Helsinki reveals a beautiful green city by the Baltic Sea, at the heart of which lies the copper domed Tempeliaukio church, excavated directly into the rocks, while Copenhagen introduces wood fired hot tubs and the ever-popular National Museum of Denmark, with exhibits stretching back to the stone age.

British Isles

The historic maritime city of Liverpool, famous for being the birthplace of The Beatles, and Northern Ireland's capital, Belfast, with its innovative Titanic Museum, are among the ports you can explore on a voyage of the British Isles in 2023. Watch the fisherman return with their trawl, from the restaurants and bars of Kirkwall's harbor, or take a tour of the Orkney distillery to sample the island's award-winning gin at its source. The sensory discovery continues in Stornoway, where a walk around Lews Castle Grounds unveils spectacular scenes of babbling brooks, emerald vegetation and piercing blue sea, while Edinburgh (tours from New Haven) provides a gateway to the city's ancient castle, the Royal Mile and Arthur's Seat.

Atlantic Coast & Iberia

Offering sunshine and warmth throughout the year, a voyage of the Atlantic Coast and Iberia is the perfect way to reinvigorate when the temperatures drop elsewhere. Lay back on golden sands in secluded coves, wander pretty harbors fringed by fishing boats, and feast on seafood plucked fresh from the ocean just hours before. On the Spanish coast, Cadiz charms with its old town filled with watchtowers, while the Portuguese city of Lisbon is your gateway to the UNESCO-listed palaces of Sintra. Admire the craftsmanship of centuries old cathedrals in Las Palmas and Funchal, swim in the gentle swell of crystal clear seas in Fuerteventura, and drink in the history at the 18th century fortress of San Jose Castle in Lanzarote.

North Cape

A voyage to the North Cape offers a journey to the furthest reaches of civilization, where buildings, cars and people are outweighed by mountains, forests and sea. Sailing at the peak of the midnight sun, you'll experience a land where darkness never falls, and the orange glow of the sun is always visible above the horizon. It's the perfect setting in which to explore the otherworldly landscapes of fjords, waterfalls and houses clinging to barren rock faces, the magnitude of which defies imagination. Step ashore among the stilted wooden buildings of the Lofoten Islands, cross the Gamle Bybro bridge to Trondheim's Old Town, admire the stained-glass windows of Tromsø's Arctic Cathedral, and enjoy time exploring in the North Cape's capital, Honningsvåg.

Iceland

With a landscape defined by geysers, volcanoes, and glaciers, a journey to Iceland unlocks scenery and experiences unlike anywhere else on earth. Magical and otherworldly, it's not difficult to see why so many travelers fall under its spell. The towns and cities you'll encounter on a voyage here hold equal appeal, with museums displaying contemporary art and exhibits charting Iceland's Viking ancestry. An overnight in the capital, Reykjavík, offers opportunity to visit the Blue Lagoon or embark on a circuit of the Golden Circle, while calls to Akureyri and Isafjörður introduce historic wooden houses and the soul-stirring landscapes of the Westfjords and Eyjafjörður Fjord.

Northern Lights

Timed to offer the greatest possibility of sighting the colorful phenomenon, the aurora borealis, a Northern Lights voyage couples port calls in Norway's characterful fjord towns with evenings on deck, in hopeful anticipation of witnessing nature's night-time light show. Drink in the sight of waterfalls and forested gullies spilling into serene blue fjords from Alesund's Mount Aksla lookout. Explore historic streets lined by white-washed wooden houses in Haugesund, and take the cable car to the summit of Mount Narvikfjellet to appreciate the sweeping panoramic vistas in Narvik. Early morning departures in Tromsø and Narvik offer maximum potential for seeing the Northern Lights if the sky stays clear and conditions align.

Mediterranean

A voyage to the Mediterranean offers the chance to walk in the footsteps of philosophers and poets, indulge in local wines in rustic tavernas, and explore whitewashed villages where fishing boats sway gently in sparkling blue sea. The Greek islands of Santorini, Mykonos and Cephalonia are among the highlights of Queen Victoria's Mediterranean itineraries in 2023, with Sardinia a further call to relish. Drink in the history of Cagliari's 13th century cathedral and its medieval old town, Castello. Visit the 16th century windmills overlooking Mykonos town, or admire the signature blue rooftops of Santorini's iconic domed buildings. A port call to Pireaus is your gateway to the historic treasures of Athens, while stops in Spain and Portugal unlock the UNESCO-listed palaces of Sintra in Lisbon, and Cadiz's atmospheric old town.

D. Overnight and Evening departures

Explore more.

Booking a voyage with a late departure or overnight port call affords you the freedom to explore for longer, travel further, or find that great little bar you read about that only magically appears by night.

Stay a while longer.

Worried about fitting it all in? With a late evening departure, you can enjoy even more hours to explore in port, helping you to see all of the main attractions or embark on a shore experience further afield.

Spend the night.

Not all voyages arrive and leave the same day. Booking an itinerary with an overnight port call gives you even longer on shore to explore, and the option to enjoy an evening drink, dinner or show in your destination.
